Seasons greetings to you, it only seems like yesterday when we were tidying away last year's Christmas decorations, and before you know it, we'll be trying to find them again.

Accordingly, and in the optimistic spirit of trying to keep a grip on things, here are our Christmas menu and New Year's Eve plans for 2019.

Our Christmas menu, available as two courses or three courses, runs from Sunday 1st December until Tuesday 24th December 2019. Turkey, with all the traditional festive accompaniments, is of course at the heart of the show, but there are plenty of exciting alternatives from near and far to please and tempt.

We do hope we'll see you.

All the best, The Halzephron Inn Team

New Year's Eve,

for the other 364 days of the year we are a welcoming country pub, who like to keep things simple – so, there will be no tickets, no entry fees and no fancy dress codes. We will however, have some music from 10.00pm and no doubt pop a few corks.
